IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO. 2929 OF 2007

1. Jayshree Wilson Walmik.

2. Shashikala Rajpal Bahot. ... Applicants.

V/s.

The State of Maharashtra. ... Respondent.

Vishwajeet Patil i/b. S.B.Hulyalkar for the applicants.

S.S.Pednekar, APP for the State.

CORAM: V.C.DAGA, J.

DATED: 9th October 2007.

P.C.:

. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The applicant is seeking bail in connection with C.R.No.288/2007 registered with Kothrud Police Station, district- Pune for the offences punishable under sections 302 read with section 34 of Indian Penal Code.

3. The learned counsel for the applicants submits that both applicants being women be released on bail on special consideration. He submits that none of them were involved in the commission of offence alleged, as such this is a fit case for grant of bail.

4. The learned A.P.P. while replying to this bail application relied upon the statement of one Shabnam, daughter of the deceased, who seems to be the eye-witness to the incident. She, in her statement, has described the manner in which the deceased was assaulted and the weapons of assault used in the commission of offence.

5. Looking to the material available on record, the presence of eye-witness, and the nature of crime, the applicants can hardly be said to have case for grant of bail. Sufficient material is available on record to connect the present applicants with the offence alleged. The Sessions Court has already rejected bail application of the applicants vide order dated 28th August, 2007 passed in Criminal Misc. Application No.2433/2007. No case is made out to take any contrary view contrary to the view taken by the Sessions Court.

6. In the result, application is rejected.
